

SERMON NOTES

NOVEMBER BULLETIN

Thankful for _____?

The list that could fill that blank for many of us can be endless isn't it. We are a blessed people to live where we do and have the incredible privileges and freedoms that we have.

But I want to encourage you this Thanksgiving season to take a few moments each day to be thankful not for what you have here and now, instead take a step past the temporal and fix your hearts and eyes on the eternal. Maybe work to fill in that blank with the promises and hope that the Bible makes about eternity.

Try filling in the blank and dwelling on these ideas...

The promise of a secure eternal salvation – Philippians 1:6

The promise of an eternal dwelling place with God – John 14:1-3

The promise of freedom from sin and brokenness and all things made new – Revelation 21:1-5

What other eternal promises could you add to this list. Try fixing your eyes on these things and see how it changes your perspective on the here and now.

~Michael
